Mortals reflect on life's precarious fate, this solemn stroke should serious thoughts create, not husband's babes nor fond parents tears, can promise safety or prolong our years, then seek solace in Jehovas trust, so shall you rise and triumph with the just.
SCULTHORPE	A38	Sacred to the memory of James Sculthorpe who departed this life 11th. June 1818, in the 23rd year of his age. Peace! Once accomplished youth! Once bloomig flower, cut down by death in an untimely hour, soft be thy kind retreat the dusty bed, where worth like thine reclines her weary head. Snatched by Heaven's decree in friendship's sight, from doing good on earth thy chief delight, thy soul we trust now soars midst orbs above, in full assurance of a saviour's love, dear youth farewell nor let a parents grief, or sisters tears despair of Heaven's relief, but wait that solemn day which shall restore, and prove not lost your son but gone before.
SCULTHORPE	A39	In affectionate remembrance of Stephen Sculthorpe who departed this life 18th March 1829, aged 60 years.
