

Harvest Suppers at the Church Rooms – 1960s/70s

These photographs were taken originally as slides by Jack and Phyllis Field in the 1960s and 1970s, at St Bartholomew's Church Harvest suppers, held in the Church Rooms. The museum team are very grateful to their daughters Val and Judith for sharing their parents photographs so generously.

If you can name anyone else in the photographs or provide a more exact date, please let the team know and we will update this artefact.
