After publishing the last magazine we realised that we had made no mention of the passing of the owner of Beau Manor. Many readers too must have remarked upon the omission. It was an oversight which we hasten to correct. Sophia Perry Herrick was as well-beloved in this parish as she was well-known. She was a devout Christian woman endowed with great gifts of which her great wealth was by no means the greatest. Others have had riches as large as hers but not many have given so creditable an account of their stewardship. She is remembered far and wide for her beneficence, but when this has been forgotten, the warmth of her sympathy, the kindness of her heart, the example of her consecrated life will be cherished memories.

God rest her soul.

The weeks that are immediately before us as we write contain a good deal that may lead us to the higher things. Michaelmas and the Harvest always come near together. And very fittingly too, for one day the Angel's bidding is to be given—"Thrust in thy sickle and reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe." S. Luke's day comes on October the 18th. He was the writer of the Gospel that bears his name, the trusted companion of S. Paul, and by profession a physician. Remembering the care of souls and bodies which was committed to him, we shall be led to think of and to pray for the doctors, chaplains, nurses and their untiring labours. On October the 28th we honour S. Simon and S. Jude and their special collect is one of the most fortifying, with its reminder of the "foundation of the Apostles and Prophets" upon which the Church is founded "Jesus Christ himself being the head corner stone." And then the month of November in spite of its traditional fog and gloom opens with the bright feast of "All Saints." There should be no need this year to press the observance of this inspiring day. "I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren," says S. Paul, "concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him... Wherefore comfort one another with these words."—I Thess., iv, 13. This is a strengthening passage and will meet the needs of many and at All Saints' time such words will come right home.

Meanwhile the present is with us and we are to interpret it in the light of the future, visible things in the light of the invisible, temporal things in the light of the Eternal. Three more Quorn men have died for their country, but the number of wounded is added to by more than three. Captain Harold Wright, of the Loyal Lancashire Regiment, was brought from Alexandria to London, but died of his wounds shortly after his arrival. He was buried in Quorn on Friday, September 19th, with full military honours and ecclesiastical rites. News arrived on Thursday, Sept. 23rd of the death of Lance Corporal Walter Daft, of the 1st Leicesters, killed by the accidental explosion of a bomb. He was for some years a bell-ringer. Frank Birkin, one of our earliest C.L.B. lads was killed by a shell on September 25th. A Memorial Service will be held for both these later. Ted Stocks and Harry Pollard are wounded.

Arthur Gibbons has joined the 10th Leicesters and is to be congratulated on his determination to overcome physical infirmities. Roland Kendall has joined the 3/5ths. Miss D. Backhouse has gone to Egypt as a V.A.D. Nurse; her brother Charlie is already in Egypt and Reggie is at the Western front. Mr. Percy Moore has left home to work on munitions at Barnsley, and so we lose a regular choirman, Sunday School helper and assistant organist. He is the last of the four brothers to leave home.

We have for the present given up the practice of reading out the long list of names of those who are serving at our Wednesday intercession. We propose gradually to form a new list consisting of those for whom we have been specially asked to pray. A box will be placed in Church and those who wish their friends or relations to be prayed for are asked to write their names with rank and regiment or ship on a piece of paper and slip it into the box, or else to mention the matter to the Vicar. This new plan does not imply that those who do not ask for our prayer are forgotten in our prayers, but we think that at a public service such a plan will give reality to our intercession and that is why we are adopting it.

There are a few more War notes. From the Wednesday collection in Church we have sent £2 to the Leicester Churches fund for providing comforts for prisoners. The collection now and until further notice will be for what we will call a Parcels' Fund. With this fund we shall send occasional parcels to the front or help parents in the expense of doing so.

A Flag Day for the Red Cross and S. John Ambulance will be held on Saturday, October 16th.

The Working Parties will re-open on Wednesday, October 6th, at the Conservative Club at 2.30. All contributions for materials to be sent to the treasurer, Mrs. Toller, at Soar House, Quorn.

The proceeds of the Rummage Sale, held at Quorn Court, on July 28th, were £23 14s. 6d. Expenses were 10/3. £10 has been sent to the Red Cross Society; £13 4s. 3d. to the Quorn Working Party to make shirts for the soldiers.

A Fancy Dress Parade and Collection, Messrs. G. O. Laundon and J. H. Johnson, Secretaries, was held on Saturday, September 25th. The splendid sum of £105 was realised, the object being to send a Christmas present to all the men who are serving.

The name of Chestoria Singh has been a very familiar one to the children for some years past. Since 1907 our Sunday School has contributed £3 10s. 0d. a year to her Christian Education at The Epiphany School, Cawnpore. About the beginning of the year she was taken ill, and we have lately received the news that she passed away on July 25th. Miss Crosthwaite, who wrote from Cawnpore, gives an excellent account of her. "I wish," she says, "that I could give her supporters at Quorn some idea of the natural beauty of her character. She came to this school 9 years ago, and I never remember a single occasion on which she had to be blamed. She was a girl to be trusted and relied on, always ready to help others in a quiet natural way without putting herself forward. She is one of the people one thanks God for, and one who helps one to take courage." The children in Quorn who have helped her year by year may indeed be proud to know that God has allowed them to have a part in producing such a beautiful example of christian character. And now that Chestoria has gone to her rest, and is beyond the power of money to help her, there is another little girl, Julia, aged 4, a motherless child, asking for our prayers and alms—but of her we shall have more to say later on.

There is another missionary letter from which we should like to make a quotation. Our small branch of the Guild of St. Augustine for Foreign Missions is particularly interested in the Diocese of Southern Rhodesia. Miss Edith Riley keeps up a correspondence with Mrs. Lloyd, one of the workers at St. Faith's, Rusape. In a recent letter Mrs. Lloyd makes this appeal—"I would ask specially for your prayers for all our native Teachers, 40 of them. They are expected to go on teaching and preaching week after week in isolation. Pray that they may have a deep personal love of our Lord, and that they may be able to lead others to love Him."

Day of Intercession for Foreign Missions

The number of eggs brought to the Harvest Festival was 453. They were sent to the Leicester Base Hospital and the Charnwood Convalescent Home, both of which institutions were very grateful for them.

An old inhabitant, Maria Martin, has passed away at the age of 90. She had lived in the Village for 75 years and was held in respect. She was laid to rest on Sunday, October 24th. May she rest in peace.

Mr. E. C. Laundon has undergone a serious operation in Faire's Hospital, Leicester. He passed safely through the ordeal, and we are glad to know that he is making very fair progress.

We are glad to know that all our men in the 5th Leicesters came safely through the fierce engagement of the week beginning October 10th.

Sergeant Harold Beardmore has been home for a few days' well-earned rest, and not a few of his friends have been glad to see him.

The following men from Quorn have recently enlisted—William Heap, Marshall Mee, Harold Mee, Wilfrid Priestley, R.G.A.; Reginald Kendrick, Leicestershire Yeomanry; Shirley Stevenson, John Walter Wesley, 10th Leicesters; Alfred William Farley, A.S.C.; Oliver Lovett, Pioneers; Albert Pell, 5th Leicesters; Harry Wiseshall, Leicestershire Yeomanry.

The name of John Teagle, Leicestershire Yeomanry should have been added some time back.

On the Red Cross Flag Day the sum of £9 12s. 4d. was collected in the village.

The Committee responsible for sending out the parcels to the men on service has been hard at work, and we hear that some very gratifying letters have been received in acknowledgment of them.

From the Wednesday Parcels Fund a parcel of cocoa, soap and envelopes has been sent to Sergeant H. Beardmore, for distribution among the 5th Leicesters.

Christmas Day. H.C. at 6.0, 7.0, 8.0, and 12.15.

During the four weeks of Advent there will be extra services or addresses. The season will be observed by making as full a use as possible of ordinary opportunities afforded for worship and intercession. The Intercession Services usually held on Wednesday Evenings, will be held on Thursday beginning on Thursday, Dec. 2nd. We must however allow the U.M.C.A. to suffer, so on Thursdays in Advent we shall keep up the custom giving the collections to this Mission.

On Christmas Day there will be celebrations. Holy Communion at 6.0, 7.0, 8.0 and 12.15. Morning Prayer will be at 11.0, and there will be no Evening Service. The collection will be for the Waifs and Strays.

Christmas Carols will be sung on Christmas Eve at different stations in the village, and on Sunday Evening, Dec. 26th, after Evensong.

The Church Lads' Brigade has existed for years in the country, and for 6 years in our parish. There are 120,000 present and past members now on military service, and 36 from our company. There is a special C.L.B. battalion of the King's Royal Rifle Corps consisting entirely of C.L. lads, numbering 1,200. Many of these men owe their first lessons in military training, and in many cases acknowledge the debt, to the C.L.B.

The Quorn Company at the present time is faced by two difficulties. (i) Our ranks are depleted by the country's call. Officers, commissioned and non-commissioned, are joining the colours. Major Lids who in the course of a year has made himself indispensable, is taking a commission in the Sherwood Foresters; Sergeant-Major Colin Beardmore who tided the company over many difficulties, and stuck to it through thick and thin from the very beginning, is joining the same regiment. And with these two men there also go Sergeants M. and C. Ottey, who have served the company well, and should soon be at home in His Majesty's Army. So the company will soon be a small one of small lads. But we have Hon. Captain Hayward and Lieutenant Hickling to carry us through, and if all do their best we shall hold together. (ii) The other difficulty is a financial one. We need not go into it at any length, but we are making an appeal for Annual Subscriptions to the extent of about £5, and shall be glad to hear of those who in this way will help us to maintain an organisation which encourages the lads of the Church in the service of God and their country, and which having been a pioneer of the Lads' Cadet movement, is now an officially recognised unit of the National Cadet organisation.

The members of the Bellringer's Guild are to be congratulated on their steady advance towards efficiency. But now we must expect to lose some of them. Albert Thompson has joined the Coldstream Guards, and others will shortly be leaving.

The National School Children are to be congratulated on the first rate performance which they have recently given both to the public and to the wounded soldiers. The Upper school gave "The Sleeping Beauty"; and the Infants gave "Scenes in the Court of the King of Hearts." Both for the enjoyment afforded and for the profit of £26 made for the Teachers Orphanage, the entertainment was a great success, and a wonderful instance of co-operation amongst teachers, children, and parents.

A large number of men in the parish are joining the colours. We are trying to keep the list in the Church porch as up-to-date as possible, and the Vicar will be very glad to receive from time to time information as to necessary additions or alterations so that the list may be as full and complete in detail as possible. It is hardly possible to publish in this magazine a satisfactory list of all who have joined during the month, as the position of so many is unsettled.

We are sorry to hear that Pte. Ben Williams has been wounded for the third time. He now lies in Hospital in Cairo.

The following points we are asked to make a note of:—

The weekly collection of eggs will be discontinued for the present until the patriotism of the hens improves. Miss Camm and Miss Firr wish to thank all who have contributed to the collection.

Since Oct. 6th, the Working Parties have made 48 Flannel Shirts, which have been sent to the Leicester Base Hospital; and 24 Flannel Shirts and 6 pairs of Socks, which have been sent to the Loughborough Hospital.

From the Loyal Blooming Rose Lodge of the Manchester Unity of Oddfellows, out of 322 members 80 men have enlisted up to November, 5 have been killed in action, and 1 has died in hospital.

On the Russian Flag Day the sum of £9 11 6 was collected in the village, to which was added £10 from the Employes at the Factory.
