PARISH NOTES.

JULY, 1917.

At a joint meeting of the Church Committee and the National Mission Committee held on Wednesday, June 20th, the Vicar asked for discussion on two questions:—

- (i.) The advisability of holding some open-air services during the summer months.
- (ii.) The possibility of establishing the Holy Communion Service in a position among the Sunday services more appropriate to the Church's highest act of worship.

Quite an animated discussion took place on both these points, on (i) a resolution was carried with one dissentient to hold some open-air services and to leave details to the National Mission Committee, on (ii) no resolution was asked for as the only object of the discussion was the ventilation of the subject.

The King's Messengers are preparing two Missionary plays which they hope to be ready to produce on Saturday, July 28th, in the open-air. We hope that parents and others in the parish will support this effort on the part of the children to deepen their own interest and that of others in the extension of the Kingdom of Christ throughout the world. Details will be published as soon as possible.

The following words from the Diocesan Magazine with reference to the Clergy and National Service will be of interest. Of the 540 Clergy who returned forms, 111 found themselves unable to offer any other work than that in which they were engaged owing to age (considerably more than 50% are over 50) and other causes, 300 expressed their readiness to give part of their time; of the remaining 129 who offered themselves for whole-time service the Bishop has accepted 77. The Bishop in commenting upon the figures says:—“The National Service Scheme, so far as the Clergy are concerned, is very satisfactory as regards the offers that have been made; not so satisfactory I fear as regards the alacrity with which they have been accepted by the authorities. This I suppose applies with equal force to the case of the laity, the difficulty perhaps is inevitable in an organisation so colossal.”

We have to add four more names to the already long list of those who have been killed in action. Official news has been received of the deaths of Albert Wright and George Lee who had been missing many months, also of George Bagley and George Pollard.

The Rev. W. A. King, Vicar of Woodhouse, was instituted to the office of Rural Dean by the Bishop of the Diocese, in succession to Canon Pitts, in Loughborough Parish Church, on June 19th.

PARISH NOTES.

AUGUST, 1917.

The Third Anniversary of the War naturally suggests itself to Christian people as a time of prayer. The Bishop of the Diocese hopes that we shall observe Saturday and Sunday, the 4th and 5th of August, as a time specially dedicated to the work of prayer. May we suggest that as the Holy Communion is the great occasion of Intercession we should all be present at 8.0 on Sunday morning, August 5th, to plead before God the Father, by the merits of the sacrifice of His Son, Jesus Christ, the needs of the nation and the needs of all the world at this time. May this third Anniversary find us all possessed of those qualities which the times call for—unselfishness, patience, hope and fortitude.

For two more Quorn lads the Church bell has tolled, adding two more names to the roll of honour. Frank Joiner was killed in the trenches by a shell on Sunday, July 8th. He is a communicant member of the Church and was a lad of very steady and regular habits of worship. Louis Brewin was killed by shell fire on July 14th. We remember him as one of the pre-war Territorials who were ready at the outset of the War, and as one of the original members of the C.L.B. In both these cases the first sad news has been conveyed to the parents in the kind and sympathetic letters of Chaplains. To the widowed mother of Frank Joiner and the parents of Louis Brewin we offer the sympathy and gratitude of all.

The Saint after whom our Church is named has his day of memorial, as is well known, on the 24th of this month and once again we bless God's name, for all His servants departed this life in His faith and fear, and especially for Bartholomew, the Israelite indeed in whom there was no guile. On Friday, August 24th, there will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 8.0. On Sunday, August 26th, there will be celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.0 and 8.0 when we hope that all Communicants will come and offer themselves afresh to God. In the afternoon, at 3.15, there will be a Church Parade of all the Companies of the C.L.B. in the Loughborough District, and of the local Volunteers if they will be so good as to accept our invitation.

There will be a meeting of the Church Committee on Tuesday, July 31st, at 8.0 at the Vicarage, and a Vestry meeting on Monday, the 20th of August, in the Schools, to receive the statement of accounts for the year ending at Easter, 1917.

The monthly meeting of the Communicants Guild to which all Communicants and especially those recently confirmed are always invited will be held on Thursday, August 2nd, in Church at 7.30. And the monthly meeting of the Guild of St. Augustine for Foreign Missions on August 23rd, at 7.0.

The Sunday School Treat will be held on Saturday, August 4th at 4.30. We are very sorry to have a treat without a Tea. But we believe that loyalty to the spirit of the Food Regulations makes it necessary. Each child on leaving will be presented with a gift, a bag of sweets, and a substitute bun.

Open-air Services will be held at 8.15 on Wednesday Evenings at the following places:—Wood Lane on August 1st, Meeting Street on August 8th, Station Street on August 15th, Barrow Road on August 22nd. It is hoped that many will assist in these services and if possible will be present at the 7.30 service in Church beforehand.

With the death of Herbert Washington France, the highly respected Station-master of the Great Central Station, a well known figure has passed away from us. He was a member of the C.E.M.S. and one of those staunch Churchmen who but for his public duties would have creditably filled some office in the Church. To his widow and daughter we offer a sympathy that is widely felt.

The Diocesan Inspector in religious knowledge and his assistant paid their annual visit to the School on June 22nd. Their reports we print below, also the statement of the Foundation Managers Accounts for the year ending March 30th, 1917.

MIXED DEPARTMENT.—Both Inspectors found careful and accurate teaching in what the children were able to give out. I had some very good attempts at explanation of the Catechism, and that subject is done quite as thoroughly and carefully as the others here. The syllabus in Group III. hardly gives the teacher enough scope.

INFANT DEPARTMENT.—The babies have been very carefully taught, quite up to the limit of their understanding, the Teacher getting answers to questions which I should not dare to ask. I congratulate Miss Burrows on the way she has handled her enormous class. The response was extraordinarily general for such a class and Miss Burrows must have put the best of herself into the work. The tone as usual is excellent.

F. C. STOCKS, Diocesan Inspector.

Quorn Churchwardens Account,

FOR THE YEAR ENDING AT EASTER. 1917.

THE Churchwardens are sorry that owing to Mr. Hayward's illness in March and April it was impossible to get the accounts ready for the Easter Vestry.

They call attention to the fact that the balance owing at the Bank on the Churchwardens Account has increased by £4 os. 6d. to £16 17s. 6d., and that the balance in hand on the Fabric Fund has been reduced by £15 17s. 10d. to £23 11s. 3d., which means that instead of having £26 12s. 1d. in hand on the two accounts combined we have now only £6 13s. 9d., so that the two accounts together are £19 18s. 4d. worse off than last year.

Moreover it has been decided by the Church Committee, and rightly so in the Churchwardens opinion, to raise the rate of remuneration of the Sexton and the Church Cleaner which will involve an increase of expenditure of about £9, and as it is unlikely that any substantial reductions on other items will be possible they fear that the deficit on the Church accounts will be considerably increased by next Easter unless more money than usual is received.

The Free Will Offerings Scheme has produced £102 17s. 2d. net compared with £107 12s. 9d. last year, a reduction of £4 15s. 7d., which, considering all things, is not unsatisfactory.

It amounts however to this, that as owing to the War so many of our Churchgoers are away, and the cost of everything has so greatly increased, it behoves those of us who remain at home, and who value the services of our Church, and wish to see it pay its way, to put our hands still deeper into our pockets and increase our contributions, and we believe that if everybody was to do so to the extent of about 8 per cent., or one penny in the shilling, the Church Accounts would soon be out of debt.

With regard to the Fabric Fund it will be noticed that in accordance with resolutions passed at the Easter Vestry and the ensuing Church Committee Meeting, on May 15, 1916, all repairs and renovations done to the inside or outside of the Church, together with half the cost of the Insurance have been charged to the Fabric Fund, and that as a set off against this 10 per cent. of the Free Will Offerings and 2 extra Sunday Collections have been paid to this Fund. The result of this has been a loss to the Fabric Fund of nearly £8. This, in the opinion of the Churchwardens, is a very unwise policy, for the Fabric Fund should, they think, be regarded as capital put aside to meet unforeseen expenditure on the Fabric of the Church, and such things as ordinary repairs and Insurance should be paid for out of income.

The total amount received by collections and boxes for Special Objects is £100 15s. 5d. as compared with £113 2s. 4d. last year, and £127 7s. 11d. the year before.

PARISH NOTES.

SEPTEMBER, 1917.

The adjourned Vestry Meeting, summoned to receive the Churchwardens' Statement of Accounts for the year ending at Easter, 1917, was held in the Schools on Monday, August 20th. The Statement is published in this number of the Magazine.

The Vicar would be glad to meet at the Schools on Thursday, September 20th, at 8.0, all who would welcome the introduction of a Choral Celebration of Holy Communion every Sunday at 9.30.

The Sunday School Treat having been postponed from August 4th, owing to the prevalent rain, was held on August 11th. The customary tea was abandoned for reasons already explained. Sports were held as usual, and in addition to the usual prizes each child fished in a bran-tub for a present, and was given on leaving a bag of sweets and a piece of cake. We hope that next year circumstances will permit us to have a tea, for nothing really can take its place.

The King's Messengers produced two Missionary plays on Saturday, July 28th, at 3.0 and 6.30 in the garden of Quorn Place, kindly lent for the occasion by Mr. Hayward. The titles of the plays were "Go Tell" and "The Way of the King's Sons." Much labour and not a little anxiety preceded the effort. The result was very pleasing from a spectacular point of view, many of the children spoke their parts clearly and intelligently, and some measure of the object of such performances—which is of course the deepening of interest in Missionary work—must certainly have been attained. Many helpers shared with the K.M. Secretary, Miss M. Gamble, the arduous work of preparation and we thank them for their labours in so good a cause. There was also a sale of work stall for which the Misses Thornton made themselves responsible, and which included some of the children's work. The proceeds, including £3 16s. 6d. from the stall, were £8 12s. 6d., which at present is being kept in hand for the carrying on of the King's Messengers work.

We are now developing plans for our winter work and for a definite course of missionary instruction. The first meeting will be the monthly service in Church on Thursday, September 20th, at 5.30. We ask parents to be so good as to tell us their wishes as to the time at which they would like their children to get home after meetings, and we shall take care to comply with these wishes.

We have brought to an end our course of six open-air services, only one of which had to be cancelled owing to the rain. Such services are a part of our elementary evangelistic obligations and we would ask Church-people not to be too anxious as to outward evidences of success. It is a common-place thing to say, but not the less true, that results are in Higher Hands than ours. Satisfy yourself that your principles are right and go ahead.

Laurence Wakeling who died of wounds on July 12th, was for some years an ardent Church-worker in the Parish and a representative and typical layman possessed of the right spirit and of a clear and pronounced mind and judgment on Church matters. We missed him when he left the Parish, we naturally mourn his loss now and feel deep sympathy with his widow, but neither he, nor others like him, are dead or lost or henceforth useless to the cause of Christ for which they laboured on earth.

We have also to record the death of George Lovett, one of 5 brothers serving, killed in action on Sept. 15, 1916, who hitherto had been considered missing, and of Frank Bale, killed in action on Aug. 11th. With all others who have given their lives they are remembered with gratitude.

Mrs. Joiner and Mrs. Lovett wish to thank their many kind friends who have made enquiries in their time of trouble.

A cheque for 3 guineas has been sent from the Wednesday collections to the Lord Roberts' Memorial Fund for disabled soldiers.

We are asked to state that the Quorn War Working Party will re-open on Monday, Sept. 10th, at the Conservative Club, at 2.30. The Fête held in the grounds of Quorn Court on July 25th, produced the gratifying sum of £34 15s. 7d

The Harvest Festival will be on Thursday, Sept. 27th, and the following Sunday. The Rev. Canon Jephson will preach on the Thursday Evening, at 8.0.

The Vicar will be away from Aug. 31st to Sept. 15th. During that time there will be no week-day services. Any who may wish for the ministrations of the Church should apply to Mr. Herbert. On Sundays, Sept. 2 and 9, services will be as usual, except that there will be only one celebration of Holy Communion on each day, viz.: at 8.0.
