My dear Friends,—

The chief events of the Parochial Festival are over as I write. We do not gather together in great numbers on the week-days of it, and particularly the early Choral Eucharist on St. Bartholomew's Day does not become our central act of worship, at least so far as numbers are concerned. Church going on a week day does not make a very strong appeal to many. I wish it might gradually succeed in doing so. However, next year St. Bartholomew's Day will fall on a Sunday and we shall look hopefully for every communicant to take his proper part in the Festival.

Our outing to Lichfield on Saturday afternoon was very enjoyable. Our party numbered 59. We took our places in the Cathedral a few moments after Evensong had begun. After the service the Verger very courteously explained to us the chief points of interest. We had tea at the Minster Café, and started for home at 7-50, arriving at the Cross at 10-15. The rain rather interfered with the enjoyment of the drive, but it was worth a lot to see, and to take part in the worship of, one of our most beautiful of English Cathedrals.

I hope to be away on holiday from September 1st to 15th. On the two Sundays during that time the services will be at 8-0, 11-0 and 6-30. They will be conducted by the Rev. D. J. Llewelyn, until recently Vicar of Beaufort, in the Diocese of Monmouth.

Your faithful friend and servant,
 H. H. RUMSEY.

Choir Boys' Outing.—The choir boys, with Miss Callis, had a day at Skegness on Saturday, August 11th. The weather was fine, and everything passed off very happily. The boys found the contributors to their fund even more liberal than usual, and they must thank them for providing more than enough for a full day's enjoyment.

The Vicar of Barrow.—Our neighbour has for some time been, and we fear continues to be, very ill. We hope and pray for his speedy recovery, and offer our sympathy to him and to Mrs. Stone in their trouble.
