My dear Friends,—

There are two things I must write about this month. First there is the all-important subject of Confirmation. The date fixed for us this year is March 12th, and the place, Woodhouse Eaves. The period of preparation should be at least two months, so there is no time to be lost, and I hope the unconfirmed will begin forthwith to consider the question of their confirmation. I appeal to all such, including those who have passed the normal age, to present themselves if they desire this means of grace as an aid to the consecration of their lives to God in His Church. I ask all parents, too, and others who have the care of children of suitable age, to use their influence in this direction. On Thursday, January 8th, at 7.0 in Church, I should be glad to meet, for the first time, all who have made up their minds or are seriously trying to do so. Then we can arrange a suitable time for the preparation classes to be held.

Then I would like to say a word about the Annual Church Meeting on Monday, January 26th, at 7.15 in the Schools. At this meeting of electors, the Treasurers present their annual statement of accounts, the Council for the New Year is appointed, and other matters of general interest are dealt with. The meeting provides the chief opportunity in the year for members at the Church to exercise their vote and influence in the affairs of the Church. But as a rule the number present does not exceed 10 per cent. of those on the Electoral Roll. I think you will agree with me, at least in principle, that this is not satisfactory. So please bring one another along and let us have a much bigger meeting.

I hope you will read and consider carefully the communication you have received about the Division of the Diocese.

May I wish all who read this a happy New Year.

Your faithful Friend and Servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

Church Council.—Notes of meeting held on December 11th:—Resolution (carried 11-1) "That in the opinion of this Council no money ought to be raised for Church purposes by raffles, fortune-telling, or competitions which do not involve some element of skill."

Division of the Diocese: Districts were allotted to the members, and literature for the canvass of the electors. Crockery: Miss Firr presented the annual account, showing a balance of £2 12s.

The Schools.—On December 18th the children of the Senior Elementary School gave some illustrations to the public, in the Village Hall, of the sort of singing, drilling and elocution that are part of their school curriculum. Songs and carols were sung by the senior and junior children separately. An exhibition of drill was given by the senior boys, and the senior girls, under Miss Moore's tuition, gave the trial scene from "The Merchant of Venice." There was a good company of parents and friends present, who showed an appreciation of the different items, which was thoroughly well deserved. Mr. Mervyn Jones and his staff are to be thanked for the entertainment, and congratulated on its merit.

On the Saturday after Christmas, Miss Moore, with the help of her staff and her Sunday teachers, gathered all the infants in the Village Hall for a Christmas Party. Parents arrived when tea was over, and Santa Claus provided the climax of the proceedings when he appeared and distributed a present to every child from the Christmas Tree.

The Sunday School annual prize-giving and singing will take place in Church on January 18th at 2.45. All the parents of the children are given a most cordial invitation.

Mothers' Union.—The Mothers' Section of the Church Room Working Party organised among themselves a very profitable little Sale of Work on Friday, December 12th. Mrs. Toller opened the sale, and spoke to those present. A very pleasant afternoon was spent. The proceeds amounted to over £12.

The Mothers are looking forward to their Social Gathering on January 5th, in the Village Hall, when they hope to welcome members from neighbouring branches.

The Vicar of Shepshed addressed the Mothers in Church on December 18th, on caring above all for what God thinks of us.

G.F.S.—An Admission Service was held on December 10th. Thirteen new members were admitted. So the good work goes on. The girls are organising a Social in the Village Hall on January 7th. They have made and sent nearly 100 garments to Mrs. Farnham for the poor in Limehouse.

Greek Refugees.—In connection with the appeal of the League of Nations Union (Quorn branch) for clothing, 118 parcels were brought to Church on December 21st. These were securely packed in eight sacks and forwarded on December 24th to the Hibernia Wharf, thence to be shipped to Greece and distributed by British workers there among the refugees.

Choir Vestry.—A handsome and useful addition to the furniture of the Vestry has been made in the shape of an oak table of Saxon design. The table, which is the gift of Edith Riley in memory of her sister, Lilian Rumsey, was dedicated at the Choral Eucharist on December 14th. The table is the work of Mr. E. B. Fewkes.

My dear Friends,—

The season of Lent will very shortly be making its appeal to us once more. It is a time when our Lord calls us, through His Church, to the acknowledgment and confession of our sins. That is both a personal and a corporate duty. As individuals we have sins and failings to bewail. As members of the Church we have the sins of the whole body to share the guilt of and to confess. This is our duty at all times, but a special season for it, intended to bring it home to us, such as Lent is, should help us to pay particular attention to it. May we one and all be moved to deeper penitence, and to that better life of which it is the true beginning.

I have not many confirmation candidates this year, 17 in all. Please think of them sometimes, and pray that the time of preparation may have far-reaching results for good.

Your faithful friend and servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

Lent.—There will be special services on the Wednesday evenings in Lent at 7.0, when a course of Addresses will be given by the Rev. R. B. Disney, Vicar of Belgrave, Leicester. The collections at the services will be for Missions, Home and Foreign. To encourage Lenten self-denial, there will be S.P.G. savings boxes given out to those who wish for them at the beginning of Lent. There will be a Children's Service every Thursday afternoon at 5.0.

Sunday Schools.—The Annual Prize-giving took place on Sunday, January 18, at 2.45. The two Superintendents, Mr. G. Horspool and Miss B. Moore, had made a careful choice of prizes, which were distributed at the close of a musical service. We should be glad to see more of the girls of the first class passing on into Mr. Hicks' Young Women's Bible Class. The following children received prizes: GIRLS.—Class I.: Muriel Dexter, Amy Flanders, Dorothy Russ, Vera Roadley. Class II.: May Stevenson, Dorothy Brown, Dorothy Cutts, Betty Allen, Agnes Tyler. Class III.: Nellie Wykes, Madge Webster, Christine Kent, Gladys Wykes, Elsie Steer, Sarah Heazel, Edith Turner. Class IV.:

Mothers' Union.—The Hall was full to overflowing on January 5th, when mothers from the neighbouring branches came to join us. The entertainment provided by Mr. C. H. N. Toller was of a most delightful character. He had spared no pains in its preparation, and we must both congratulate and thank him and his friends on behalf of the mothers, who indeed, have spoken of the entertainment since in the highest terms.

There will be devotional services on Fridays, January 30 and February 27, at 3.0. The box in Church on these occasions will be for Peterborough Cathedral Restoration.

G.F.S.—The Jubilee occurs on March 5th, so may this year be one of great advance! The social gathering on January 7th passed off very happily. The Society was the subject of the Church's prayers on January 21, and a nice number of the girls came to join in the evening intercession.

Church of England Zenana Missionary Society.—A Lantern Lecture for women and girls in connection with this society will be given in church by the Rev. J. E. Swinhoe, on Wednesday, Feb. 18, at 7-0. The meeting is being arranged by the Mothers' Union and G.F.S. jointly. We hope all their members will be present. But the meeting is open to all women and girls. The lecture should make a strong appeal to them, for the society exists for evangelistic, medical and educational work among the women of India and China. There will be a collection.

King's Messengers.—Miss Smith was responsible for a very happy gathering in the Village Hall on December 29th. Tea was followed by a programme of music and games, and at the close there was a very creditable performance by the girls of a Missionary Play, entitled "Palm and Pine." Parents were invited, and we should have been glad to see more of them. Miss Smith wishes to acknowledge with thanks some donations to defray the expenses. We hope that a large number of the members, both boys and girls, will enter for the examination in March.

Church Room.—There will be a social gathering in the Village Hall on Shrove Tuesday, Feb. 24, at 7-30. The first part will consist of a musical programme, provided by the Misses Firr, which is sure to attract. This will be followed by refreshments and dancing. Admission 1/6, including refreshments. The committee decided not to solicit refreshments personally, but to ask those who will give something to inform Mrs. E. B. Fewkes not later than February 21. Please be so good as to remember this.

The date for the Summer Sale and Fête was fixed for Saturday, July 11.

League of Nations Union.—The Quorn Branch started a new year of life with its annual meeting on January 20th. The following officers were elected: President, the Vicar; vice-president, the Rev. H. F. Bran; treasurer, Mr. G. Keith Thomson; secretary, Mr. Alun Jones. There are 89 members. After the reading of the secretary's and treasurer's statement, Mr. Keith Thomson continued his account of the League's work in 1924, which he began at the November meeting. He was cordially and deservedly thanked.

Should not all men and women of goodwill and faith and hope associate themselves with this work and help to further the ideal of the League by joining the Union.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, Feb. 17, at 7-30, at the Grammar School. Speaker: The Vicar.

My dear Friends.—

I should have been wiser to have spoken to you about Lent this month instead of last. But I must not repeat myself, except briefly to commend the season as one when the question of our spiritual growth should be very often in our thoughts, as the thing which is of supreme importance. May we go forward at least one step before Easter.

I look back to our annual meeting held on January 26th, with thankfulness. It is true there were barely 12 per cent of our electorate present, which is not satisfactory, but the tone of the meeting and the work accomplished were gratifying. Especially would I like to mention two features of Church life which seem to me to be becoming more conspicuous as the years go by (1) a sense of responsibility among a larger number of individual workers, (2) a wider vision of the Church to which we belong and its claims upon our loyalty, and service. But these things being so, I believe we are in a position to accomplish for our Lord, more than we do, for there are many, near and afar, to whom we have yet to preach the Gospel as "the power of God unto Salvation."

I was fortunate in securing Mr. Walton as my warden for another year, and the people, with regret that Mr. Fewkes was unable to offer himself again, elected Mr. Adams. The statement of accounts for 1924, which was presented by the retiring people's warden, is printed below. The election of council and sidesmen brings some new blood into both bodies and we welcome these new fellow-workers. The names of the elected are at the head of the page. These are the laity chosen to advance, by example and work, the Kingdom of God amongst us. God bless them.

The passing away of Mary Hannah Firr, at the age of 79, after many years of infirmity, has been felt by many besides her family, to whom we offer our sympathy. Many of us regarded her as a friend whose interest was not diminished by her own troubles, a model mother in the eyes of the older generation, and in the days of her health, an active worker in the Church. God rest her soul.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

My dear Friends,—

We once again draw near to the Queen of Festivals. May we do so with high hopes. Why should we? Because there are only two evils in life and Christ, by His resurrection, has drawn the sting of both. The two evils are the power of sin and the fear of death. Imagine your life without them. Well it is without them in proportion to your faith. In the victory of our Lord, proclaimed on Easter Day, we all are sharers, if we will, and death and sin no more appal us. May our hope be that when we gather at the altar on Easter Morning this fact may come right home to us, and possess us as it never has before.

A Holy Week well kept is a good preparation for Easter. There will be found below some particulars as to services. May I ask you to study them and if possible so to arrange your programme of life during that week as to find a place for attendance at one or more of the services. On Good Friday I am particularly anxious that the children should come in greater numbers to the service at 9-0. Not so many years ago, this was a great service.

The other evening I turned into the Schools to find a meeting just drawing to a close. It consisted of mothers and girls and they had been listening to a heart-to-heart talk on things that matter from Mrs. Tomlinson, the Diocesan secretary of the G.F.S. I know that the meeting consisted of plain speaking about, and rapt attention to things of the utmost sacredness and beauty, and I felt indescribably aware of the stirring of great and potent influences for good. We must not leave it all to the women and girls, but where they are staunch for purity, our hopes must run high.

Your faithful friend and servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

san Gazette: Resolved, to make an effort to induce all Church workers to take the Gazette, the Council distributing 100 first free copies. Members promised to canvass workers. Gift: Resolved, to convey thanks of Council to Miss Riley for gift of oak table to Vestry in memory of her sister, Mrs. Rumsey.

Burials.—The charges payable to the Clerk and Sexton have been under consideration for some time past, on the ground that they have hitherto been less than what is both customary and fair. The Council have now decided to fix the inclusive charge to the Clerk and Sexton for an ordinary burial at 11/- and at 9/- for a child. This will take effect from May 1st of this year.

The question of the bells customarily rung has also been before us. In future, the passing bell, i.e., the bell rung at the time of death, will be tolled for 30 minutes, and the custom of ringing at the two hours previous to a funeral, known as the Bearers' Bells, will be dispensed with. That the solemnity of death is emphasised by the solemn tolling of the bell is an idea that may well survive, but that the bells have hitherto rung too frequently and too long, is, we think, a justifiable contention.

The Churchyard.—The committee of the council appointed to care for the churchyard held a meeting in the churchyard on March 16th at 5.30. The paths were found to need attention, particularly that leading to Love Lane. This will shortly be gravelled and sufficient turfing laid to reduce the path to its normal breadth. The ground immediately under the north wall of the North Aisle was considered to be unsightly, and it was agreed to remove all the granite and lilac bushes and seed down for turfing. The drains on the main path have been refusing for some time to carry away the water. Apparently they are not actually drains but mere sumps. They must be examined and put in order. Attention was called to some dead trees which must, of course, be removed, and also to the fact that trees had been planted in some parts by private individuals. This, of course, is not in order, and the Vicar begs to ask any who might be contemplating the planting of a tree, not to do so without referring the matter to him. There are two unauthorised pathways which it is very difficult to persuade some people not to use, to whom they afford a convenient short cut. But such short-cutting is invariably to the detriment of the graves and we must appeal to the good feeling and respect which even the most hurried people possess when they give themselves time to think.

Mothers' Union.—They have had a busy month, coming together for one reason and another no less than four times, including a corporate communion on Lady Day. May our homes be all the better and the happier!

Division of the Diocese.—Total of donations promised up to date, £158 7s. 10d, of which £85 12s. 7d. received. If any who wish to give have been overlooked will they please refer to the treasurers.

My dear friends,

We had a bright and happy Easter, and we must record our thankfulness. The communicants were more in number than in previous years. This was to me personally, and to many others, an encouragement. I do not overestimate the importance of numbers, and so far as they are of any value, the number of regular worshippers at the altar, week by week, at quiet normal times, as well as at festivals, is a safer test of our progress. But even so, what is that compared with life and character progressively under the influence of the Holy Spirit? To this let us aspire. It is the message of Whitsuntide to us. At the close of this month, for Whit Sunday falls on May 31st, we shall be responding to it now, and realising that "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God."

You gave me an Easter offering this year that was much in excess of previous offerings. Your churchwardens handed me a cheque with very kindly expressed congratulations. I thank you all, individually and collectively, for your goodwill which this offering imparts to me.

A few Sundays back I spoke to you in Church about funeral and other occasional services of the church, and the part which those who are present should take in them. These services are acts of corporate worship in which the public should be present not merely as friends and sympathisers, still less as spectators, but as worshippers, taking an active and audible part in the service. At a funeral for instance, during the saying of the psalm, the congregation, having their prayer-books with them, should stand and recite the alternative verses, following the lead of the clerk. At the grave-side, the Lord's prayer should be said by all, and the amen to the prayers should be the hearty assent of those present to the petitions which have been offered. The same thoughts apply to the wedding service. Our mere presence on these occasions is not enough. But if we have come to join our worship with that of the little group of mourners or rejoicers, who indeed may themselves be unable to pay much attention at such a time, we shall be hallowing the occasion for them, winning a blessing for them, as "toiling, rejoicing, sorrowing, onward through life they go."

Your faithful friend and servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

Whit Sunday, May 31st.—H.C. at 6.30, 7.30, 9.30 (choral), and 12.0.

The Choir.—The singing of "Penitence, Pardon, and Peace" on Palm Sunday was very creditable. We thank the choir and organist for the pains taken. In our soloists, Miss F. Flanders and Messrs. C. Joiner and M. Rumsey, we are fortunate. They are willing to take any amount of trouble and always with good results. Some of our boys are breaking up, but we have some little probationers preparing to take their place. We are sorry to be losing Mrs. Jones, who is leaving the village. We must seek out another contralto. Talking of the ladies, some are asking "Why not have them robed correctly?" True.

Bell Ringers Guild.—Some probationary members have been showing great keenness and some must shortly be admitted to the guild. Some old members have been losing interest. We beg them to come along and be keen. Attendances are kept and read out periodically at meetings; this leads to plain speaking, which no one seems to mind. Practice night during the summer: Wednesday at 7.30.

My dear Friends,—

The Missionary Guild has been considering the institution of a day of prayer and gifts for Foreign Missions. A Sunday in October seems the best time. Assuming the willingness of the Church Council both to co-operate and to allow the S.P.G. Annual Sunday to be in October, which there is every reason to expect, a day of prayer and gifts will be held at that time. It should constitute a forward movement in missionary interest and support. It is not too early to speak of it, for its success will depend on the preparations that are made for it.

You will see by the particulars set forth below that the arrangements for the Sale and Garden Fête on July 11th are well in hand. If we are blessed with fine weather, this will prove to be, as it has been in the past, a very happy summer event. Let us do all we can to make it both this, as well as a means of adding a good big sum to our Church Room Fund. The various stall-holders, if we except the secretary, have the lion's share of responsibility. The best way in which we can help them is to offer them contributions to their stalls, not waiting for them to ask us to do so. Please imprint the date, July 11th, upon your minds, and keep it free from other ties.

On Monday, June 15, there will be a concert in the Vicarage Garden at 7-30. There is no lack of accommodation, and if 500 were present none need suffer any discomfort. The house is an excellent sounding board, and music travels from it very well. The proceeds will be for the Foundation Managers' fund for the Day Schools. We are contemplating a very necessary reconstruction of some of our classrooms, which will be rather costly. The admission will be 1/-, including light refreshments, which will be served during the interval.
