My dear Friends,

Christmas communions, Christmas decorations, Christmas carols, Christmas parties, Christmas in the family circle, all these things are once again of the past, stored in the memory. But before they have been quite tucked away into the sub-conscious another year opens. The Holy Child is given His holy name—Jesus—on the day we call New Year's Day, being the eighth from His birth. A Happy New Year, therefore, we have every reason to wish one another. Do not dwell morbidly on the change and uncertainty of the future, but be restful in the thought that Jesus is "the same yesterday, to-day, and for ever."

I have written of the Bazaar below. Here I need but record my own impression of it as a very happy and well-managed gathering and thank all of you who in your various ways carried it through to such a successful conclusion.

I am glad that our three Lambeth Conference meetings last month aroused quite a fair amount of interest. A large proportion of those present took part in the discussions; in fact, we could have extended our meetings to a later hour without any difficulty. I, personally, value such occasions for thoughtful disagreement about things that matter deeply, and I hope that the three meetings announced below will be well attended.

May I ask you to make a careful note of Monday, January 26th. On that evening at 7-0, in the Church Room, our annual Vestry and Parochial Church Meetings will be held. We shall then elect our Churchwardens, Church Council, and Sidesmen for the coming year and hear a statement of our last year's accounts from the Treasurer. All who are on the Electoral Roll are qualified to attend and vote. I hope that a large number will do so. If you are not on the Electoral Roll and are qualified to be so will you please speak to me or any member of the Church Council about it. The Roll must be complete within 14 days of the meeting. No one should be proposed for any office whose consent to stand for it has not been obtained.

With every good wish for 1931.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

The Bazaar.—This much looked for event was a happy one in every respect. A brief opening ceremony at 3-0, in which the honourable Mrs. R. E. Martin took the leading part and for which she was appropriately thanked, got us under weigh in good time. Instrumental music by Mrs. and Miss Dearden and Mrs. Suffolk accompanied the first stage of the buying business. The Chantant followed in the Ante Room under the supervision of Miss Firr, and unaccompanied refreshments in the hall with Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Platts supplying our needs. At 5-15 (and at 8-0) followed a dramatic entertainment consisting of two short comedies, "Buying a Gun" and "The Bath Room Door," which for their humour and talent absolutely delighted us, rewarding to the utmost the time and pains spent upon them by Mr. Charlie Toller and his friends. At 6-30 followed the children's plays on the hall stage. Miss Latham's infants gave us a nursery rhyme play, Miss Horspool's girls "The Mist Cap," and Miss Sutton's "The Duke of the Christmas Daisies." The dresses and the acting were the result of much very careful preparation, and all who got the chance enjoyed immensely the children's very pretty performances. In and out of these items amusing and perplexing competitions provided by Mr. and Mrs. Pochin were taxing the calculating capacity of all who were willing to submit to them. All the while, of course, the main business of the bazaar was going forward. The stall-holders had been busy for many previous weeks with the result that there were eight well stocked and well staffed stalls where business was brisk throughout the afternoon, and because great care had been taken on the day before with the decorations the Hall was quite a nice warm and cheery place. Miss Firr's secretarial duties were by no means light, and our thanks are due to her and her most active committee.

The attendance was good from start to finish, and we gladly welcomed a large number of visitors from other parishes who very much encouraged us by their support. The net proceeds amounted to £144, which shows with what determination the parish threw itself into this effort. Our large school playground, whose winter mud and summer dust have been an annoyance for generations, is now asphalted in every corner. The conditions of school life both for teachers and taught are thereby much improved, and the Managers have a balance which will give them some freedom in dealing with future needs which are bound to arise.

Gift.—The Vicar was recently offered a sum of money anonymously for some gift to the Church to commemorate the 21st anniversary of his induction. The oak panelling of the corner behind the Lectern together with the two-stepped pedestal on which the reader of the lessons will stand are the form which the gift has taken, the Church Council agreeing to bear the small cost of removing the old platform and tiling the floor where it stood. The panelling has just been fixed at the time of writing, the work having been placed in the hands of Mr. E. B. Fewkes, the Vicar's Warden. No opinion has yet been gathered as to the effect of this change, but we have very little doubt that it will be thought of as a very great improvement, for which we shall all (as the Vicar certainly is) be most grateful.

Church Room.—A good clock would be a useful addition to the Room. The committee have decided to raise a shilling fund for the purpose of purchasing one as a memorial to Mr. E. C. Laundon, who was so anxious to see the Room built, but did not live to see it. Mrs. Penfold is the treasurer of the fund, and will be glad to receive shillings.

Lambeth Reports.—Further meetings for hearing and discussing the Lambeth Conference reports will be held in the Church Room at 7-30 as follows:—

Thursday, Jan. 15th.—“The Anglican Communion.” The Rev. H. E. Stevens, Vicar of Billesdon.

Thursday, Jan. 22nd.—“The Ministry.” Canon Linwood Wright, Vicar of St. Mark's, Leicester.

My dear Friends,

Our annual meetings are just over, and have given us once again our wardens and Council for another year. In a letter I speak, of course, personally, and so I thank retiring members for their loyal help, remembering that each one of them has given thoughtful and willing service. New members I welcome gladly, believing that they will find in the Council opportunities for useful activity. Naturally the question who shall be my own warden concerns me very intimately. I cannot adequately thank Mr. Ernest Fewkes for the conscientious and consistent help that he has given me during the past five years. His place is taken by Mr. W. Branford, a man in whose devotion I have every confidence. Everything that has to do with maintaining and extending the Kingdom of God is the business of the elected officers of the Church, and if we bear this in our minds we may look forward to a year in which our work may be very much blessed.

What use we shall make of Lent is a question with which we shall shortly be faced. The need of prayer and self-discipline is always urgent, and it is probably right that in these directions we should aim at some amendment of our lives in the solemn time that leads us to Easter. Above I have spoken of the corporate life of our Church; now I am speaking of the life of the individual, which is first, and always first, in importance. The Church will be the salt of the earth only when each one singly of her members lives the consecrated life. To this God is calling us.

Your faithful Friend and Servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

Lent.—Ash Wednesday falls on February 18th. The services for that day will be found in the notes for the month. On the five succeeding Wednesdays the Rev. W. A. King will give a course of addresses at 7-30 Evensong. We hope that these services will be used by many as a help to the spiritual life. Our collections at these services will be for the Diocesan Police Court Mission, which aims at helping all who find themselves in trouble in police courts irrespective of age, class or creed.

Lent boxes for the S.P.G. will be offered on the Sunday before Lent.

Confirmation.—This will take place on February 26th at Christ Church, Mountsorrel, at 7-30. We have six female candidates and no males. Please pray for them that the gift of the Holy Spirit as well as their own self dedication may be great realities to them.

Annual Meetings.—The Vestry, sitting jointly with the Parochial Church Meeting, met in the Church Room on Monday, January 26th, at 7-0. There were 59 present. The Vicar thanked Mr. E. B. Fewkes for having served as his Warden for the past five years and appointed Mr. W. Branford to succeed him. The meeting thanked Col. W. S. N. Toller for his services as people's warden during the past year and re-appointed him. Col. Toller, for the treasurers of 1930, presented the retiring Council's statement of accounts. These will appear in the March magazine. The general account, beginning with a deficit of £10 10s 7d., ended with a balance of £10 18s. A vote of thanks was passed to the auditor, Mr. T. Shenton. The Church Council and sidesmen were then elected for the ensuing year a ballot being taken in each case. Their names appear at the top of the page.

The Sunday School.—The prize-giving took place on Sunday, January 18th. Mr. F. T. Bell-Ward, of Bardon Hall, a Diocesan reader, gave a helpful address on Ps. 119, 105, and the Vicar thanked the superintendents and teachers for their self-sacrificing work in the Sunday Schools and asked the parents to begin in the home what was carried on in the schools. Mr. G. Hand played the organ, and the singing of the children without the lead of a choir was quite good.

To Mr. W. Moore and his son and daughters we offer our sympathy. Mrs. Moore passed away on Saturday, January 3rd, after a very short illness and her body was laid to rest on the following Thursday, the choir and organist being present. We shall remember her as a good mother, an active housewife, and a devout churchwoman, who shared with her husband the joys of family life as well as the deep sorrow of losing three of their four sons in the Great War. May she, with all the faithful departed, have ever-increasing light and peace!

Towards Peace.—The annual meeting of the Quorn branch of the League of Nations Union was held on Tuesday, January 20th. The report for 1930 showed that many of the members are students of League affairs, and the balance sheet showed a sum amounting to over £25 being forwarded from the branch to headquarters. For 1931 the following officers were appointed: President, the Vicar; vice-presidents, Mr. F. H. Eastman and the Rev. E. E. Attwood; treasurer, Mr. G. Keith Thomson; secretary, Mr. Alun Jones. Then followed an address on the League's work in 1930 by Mr. G. Keith Thomson. Amongst peace movements of 1930 to be remembered were the Naval Conference (one result of which was the removal of suspicion between Great Britain and the U.S.A.), the completion of preparations for the Disarmament Conference, and the withdrawal of all foreign troops from Germany. From other points in the address listeners concluded that owing to the League's activities there is taking place in our days a pooling of the experiences of every country, which is of enormous advantage to the health and happiness of mankind. The names of Balfour and Nansen were gratefully remembered. The next meeting will be on Tuesday, February 17th, at 7-30, at the Grammar School. The speaker will be Mr. J. Proctor, B.Sc.

My dear Friends,

I have suggested to some of you a three-lined prayer for Lent. It is a comprehensive and orderly prayer and may be particularly helpful if after each line we pause for a short meditation. This is it:

May I know Thee more clearly,
May I love Thee more dearly,
May I follow Thee more nearly.

I have put three books on the shelf in Church which may be helpful in their different ways. They are Bishop Gore's "Jesus of Nazareth," Paterson Smyth's "People's Life of Christ," Drummond's "The Greatest Thing in the world and other Addresses." Please make use of them for reading or make a note of the publisher and buy one or other of them of any bookseller. The cost of each is 2/6. May our Lent be a helpful time to us and our Easter one of the brightest that we have ever spent.

It seems very odd for me to be going away at this time of the year, but you are all most kindly making me a present of a holiday, so I am hoping to be away from Saturday, March 7th, to Saturday, March 28th. I have booked a berth on one of the Cunard cruises which visits the Canary Islands and the Western Mediterranean, and I am looking forward to a very delightful trip.

Below you will find our Treasurers' annual statements of accounts as well as that of the Church Room and Missionary Guild.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

My dear Friends,

The contrast between the care-free life of an Atlantic liner and a parish priest's duties in Holy Week and Easter is as great as any you can imagine, and to pass immediately from one to the other is for me a unique experience.

I had no ministrations to perform on board, but being asked on the first evening by a fellow holiday-maker if I would give the Sacrament on Sunday mornings to such as desired it, I willingly consented. The Purser and lounge stewards made all preparations, and it was ample reward that a word of thanks was whispered in my ear at the breakfast that followed. I was rather unsteady on my legs on the first Sunday. I must say no more about my holiday now, for I hope to have an opportunity to speak about it to any who may be interested, as you will see in the notes for the month, on April 23rd.

One coming event, also referred to below, I would like to say a word about. The Church Room Committee have arranged to have a League of Nations meeting on Thursday, the 16th. Our speaker is one who besides being a student of League matters has a cheery and humorous manner of speaking. Both the chairman and speaker will most cordially welcome questions and criticisms, and the meeting which will be open to all will, I hope, prove of great interest in the great cause of world peace.

I am usually able at this time to announce definitely that Ascension Day will be observed as a day of Prayer and Gifts for Missions Overseas. I am only able at the present to say that the proposal to do so will be laid before the Church Council on the 22nd of this month. But as the observance of this day calls for some preparation beforehand, I feel it right to say now that I hope we shall follow again the precedent of the last three years.

You should receive this Magazine on Easter Eve. May it convey to you my Easter greetings, and unless there be any grave hindrance may I have the happiness of giving you on the Queen of Festivals your Easter Communion.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

Annual Parochial Church Meeting.—This took place on Wednesday, March 4th. There was a moderate attendance of electors. The treasurer's financial statement disclosed a healthy position, a total of over £300 having been raised for Church purposes within the parish and for Diocesan and Missionary objects. The Vicar expressed his grateful appreciation of the help given in Church and Sunday School. The following were declared members of the Parochial Church Council: The Vicar and Wardens, Miss Green and Miss P. Broughton (ex-officio), Messrs. J. Cufflin, H. Crofton, F. H. Hunt, C. E. Wye, W. A. Wilson and J. W. Jeffcoat (hon. sec.), Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Chester, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Wouldidge, Mrs. Waldron, Misses Blunt, Chester and Shaw.

The following sidesmen were elected: Messrs. H. Barker, R. Botham, C. Botham, J. Cufflin, W. Gibson, J. Hunt, J. W. Jeffcoat, B. Newbold, A. E. Wouldidge, C. Wye, C. E. Wye, B. Ward. Diocesan Conference Representative: Miss Green. Ruri-Decanal Conference Representatives: Mr. and Miss Broughton. A resolution expressing the Council's appreciation of the help given in Church and Parish by Mr. and Mrs. E. P. King and regret at their removal from the parish was unanimously passed.

My dear Friends,

My notes below must have all but exhausted my space. We spent a happy Easter, but our number of Communicants was much lower than usual. I don't want to think much about numbers, but a drop at such times always disappoints me, and I may as well ask you to share that feeling with me. The addresses of the Vicar of Woodhouse during Lent were much appreciated and the Vicar of St. Peter's, Loughborough, was very helpful at the Good Friday three hours devotion. We were able as a result of Lenten services to send some help to the Police Court Mission, S.P.G., Missions to Jews, and St. Mary's Home, all of which will help also to widen our sympathies. You also very kindly gave me the Easter offering again, for which I am most grateful, following so soon as it did on my holiday present. The choir, I think, deserve a word. They sang the "Crucifixion" very beautifully on Good Friday evening.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

Church Council.—Notes of meeting held on April 22nd in the Church Room, 7-15. Present, 12; apologies 2; membership 15. 1.—Churchyard extension deed of conveyance completed. Resolved to take steps forthwith for vacant possession. 2.—Missionary Sub-Committee. The following elected: Mr. M. Rumsey, Miss Horspool, Miss Butler, Miss Beestall, Mr. F. Thompson, Miss Bradley, Mr. Martin, Mrs. Hickling. Resolved to ask the Committee to arrange for a day of prayer and gifts for Missions Overseas on Ascension Day on the lines of previous year. 3.—Indian Church Endowment Fund. Resolved that retiring collections be made on Sunday, May 3rd. 4.—Sunday School Festival. Date fixed July 19th.

Ascension Day, May 14th.—The observance of this day has greatly increased during the last few years because we have kept it as a day of prayer and gifts for Missions Overseas. It is a suitable day for such observance because our Lord before His ascension said to His disciples, "Go ye into all the world. . . ." And once again the Church Council have asked their Missionary Sub-Committee to make the necessary preparation.

We hope that prayer will be continuously offered in Church from 7-0 a.m. till the close of Evensong. Will those who are ready to hold themselves responsible for any period of private prayer please put their names on the chart in the porch. The services will be: Holy Communion, 7-0 and 8-0; Mattins, 10-0;

Litany, 12-0; Mothers' Union Devotional Service, 3-0; Children, 5-0; Choral Evensong, 7-30. The Vicar hopes that the children will come as usual for games on the Vicarage lawn after their service, and that they will decorate the church with buttercups, etc. on the previous day.

We hope, too, that the offerings made will reach a large sum. Gifts in money are the most easily dealt with, but we also welcome gifts in kind, pieces of jewellery for instance, or any saleable produce such as eggs, etc. Envelopes will be distributed in which money gifts may be brought to the Church. May the thought of God's loving purpose to gather all mankind into the one fold under one Shepherd, and the thought, too, that His purpose can only be carried out by us, persuade us always to lives of willing service.

Mothers' Union.—This will be a busy month. After the Devotional Service on May 5th there will be a hymn practice for the mass meeting. On Ascension Day the members will be responsible for the intercessions from 2 o'clock to 4 o'clock, including the Devotional Service at 3 o'clock. On Friday, May 22nd, there will be a rummage sale in aid of branch funds at 6 o'clock in the Church Room. Admission for members only 2d. On Wednesday, June 3rd, the mass meeting in the De Montfort Hall will take place. Buses start from the Cross 1-30 punctually. Return fare 1s. 3d. Tea at Winn's Café (paid from branch funds). The outing to Warwick has been given up for this year.

G.F.S.—The members must be warmly congratulated on the following results of the Diocesan Competitions for which they entered on April 18th. Nellie Sharp, first for knitting; Elsie Waite second for knitting; Edna Towell first for embroidery; Gladys Rumsby (now Mrs. Wheatecroft) second for embroidery; May Flanders certificate for cake making and jelly; Nellie Sharp certificate for cake making; Dora Harris certificated for reading aloud. The drill team were awarded 81 per cent. marks and were awarded a certificate, and the country dance team were awarded over 60 per cent. and a certificate.

The Mountsorrel Drama Society gave a performance of three one-act plays in the Village Hall on April 22nd, and handed to the G.F.S. half the proceeds. Not only the G.F.S., but all who were present have reason both to thank and to congratulate the Mountsorrel friends, for their Drama Society is evidently a most flourishing affair and is producing amateur acting of a high order.

The Rummage Sale was unavoidably cancelled with apologies.

Church Room Activities.—(1) A most interesting and helpful lecture on the "League of Nations and Reasons for its Support" was given by Mr. W. Jacques on April 16th. There were about 40 present. The speaker dealt effectively with such statements as "Truly war is undesirable, but it is unavoidable," showing by some very striking illustrations how untrue it is to say that human nature does not change. If it were true that it does not not only the League but the whole Church might as well close down. He dealt also with the old belief that a balance of power between highly armed and well-balanced groups of powers was the best way of securing the peace of the world, showed how this had failed, and urged the need of nations henceforth forming not two groups, but one. How valuable is the League, too, in bringing representatives of the nations into touch with one another, and so gradually undermining the suspicion which makes disarmament impossible, and many other points were dealt with in a very sane and practical manner. Discussion followed, and the result of such a meeting must surely be to help a patriotic Englishman to see his way wholeheartedly to support the League of Nations, and to do so by joining the League of Nations Union. (2) A concert and dance was held on April 23rd. An hours very delightful music, vocal and instrumental, was provided by Miss Furr and her friends. The Vicar gave some impressions of his three weeks cruise to the Atlantic Isles and the Western Mediterranean and thanked the parish for a coming-of-age present which took such a delightful and profitable form. Refreshments and dancing followed, and a very pleasant evening was spent. The use of the Church Room in the past winter speaks well for the enterprise of both Committee and Secretary.

Indian Church Endowment Fund.—Our interest and support is asked in a way well within our reach. The facts are these. On March 1st, 1930, the Church of England in India became an independent self-governing church. Henceforth the Government of India will no longer pay the whole of the salaries and establishment expenses of the Bishops of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, as hitherto. The Church of India, as it now is, therefore has to raise an endowment fund of £75,000, and it is asking the Church of England to give £50,000 of this as a dowry to the daughter Church on the occasion of her coming-of-age. Our own Diocese is proposing to give £250, and to present the offering at the Diocesan Missionary Festival at Hinckley on May 7th. Our own Parochial Council has considered the question of help from our own parish, and has resolved to have retiring collections at the close of all services on Sunday, May 3rd. That will give us our opportunity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mee and Mr. Mackenzie wish to thank all their friends for many kind expressions of sympathy. Mrs. Mackenzie after delivering her magazines on the previous afternoon was taken ill very suddenly and passed away in the early hours of Easter Day. To her husband and parents we offer our sympathy in their sudden bereavement.

May Notes.

On no day in the year is the Church in such continuous use as it is on Ascension day. This is of course because, by arrangement made beforehand, there are people in church for prayer during all the intervals between the services. No doubt this practice will help to accustom us to the use of the open church for private prayer at any time on any day.

The number of gift-envelopes for missionary work that are returned on the day remains very steady. There were 90 this year and on each of the two previous years, 91. They were sent to all on the electoral roll. The amount of our gifts will rise and our prayers be more real when we come to understand by our reading the situation in the mission field. It would be well to put ourselves sometimes into the place of our own people overseas who lack the ministrations of their religion, or of the heathen who are asking for teachers, to both of whom the reply so often is, "We are sorry we have not the means to help you more."

The wild-flower decoration of the Church, arranged by the children was very pretty. The kek had not reached its present luxuriance, so there was less of that than usual and rather more lady-smock, and the blue-bells were at their best.

The children played games on the Vicarage lawn after their service and fortunately the weather remained fine. We often have to be thankful for the fine weather that has blessed many a Vicarage garden fixture.

Whitsuntide was marked by extremes of weather. Nothing could have been more depressing than the continuous rain of Saturday and Sunday, or more glorious than the sunshine of the following three days. Our services of thanksgiving for the gifts of the Holy Spirit were bright and the church, with red and white decorations, was at its best. But the remarkable thing about Whit-Sunday this year was the number of communicants who, though at home and apparently in sound health, did not come to the altar. Why?

The hiking vogue of tramping, with stick and rucksack, the high road and field paths should be all to the good. There is no finer way of seeing and enjoying the country. There is no glow of tired contentment to compare with that which comes at the end of a long day's walk. Hiking will acquaint people too with our country churches. What better place is there than the open village church for a mid-day rest? And what place is more likely to encourage thankfulness to our Creator, Redeemer, Preserver?

The Mothers have practised their hymns for the mass meeting on June 5th. The only real difficulty is with Gustav Holt's "I vow to Thee my Country." If the Mothers of the diocese have conquered its difficulties it should sound very well in the De Montfort Hall. The sum of £11 was made by the rummage sale on May 22nd.

We have sent £2 15s. 0d. to the Indian Church endowment fund from the retiring collection on May 3rd, which is quite a fair share of the amount asked for from our diocese.

The Quorn Infant Welfare is very much indebted to Miss Nichols for the proceeds of the entertainment given by her pupils on May 27th.

The rather sudden death of Mr. Ragg came as a sad blow to his wife and children and is much regretted by his many friends. We offer our deep sympathy to his widow and son and daughter.

"Make us to be numbered with Thy Saints."

—June has at least three with whom we should like to be numbered. They are quite different from one another and perhaps we can hardly be like them all at the same time, and perhaps we are not meant to be. There is Barnabas on the 11th, Barnabas, the friendly man, whose right hand of fellowship meant so much at least to Mark and Paul. "He was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and (as a consequence) much people was added to the Lord." See the beautiful collect for the day.

There is John Baptist, whose day, the 24th, is oddly enough called Midsummer day, when summer has just begun. He was an ascetic and he boldly rebuked vice and has perhaps more reason to remember his enemies than his friends. "Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you."

Then there is St. Peter's day on the 29th. Peter we thank for the example of his warm impulses. True, he began to sink, but true also he alone essayed to walk upon the water. To the question "is thy heart right as my heart is with thy heart?" he could always have answered "Yes." Could we?

Hymn Festival.—Our choir is taking part with six other choirs in a hymn festival in All Saints', Loughborough, on Thursday, June 11th, at 8.0. We are singing examples of tunes of four centuries, 1530–1930, selected by the Diocesan Choral Association. The words of the hymns will be provided and people from all the parishes will, of course, be welcome.
