My dear Friends,

The fund for the bells is making very satisfactory progress. We publish below the third list of donations and promises, which shows that 157 people have responded and brings the total, as you see, to £94 15s. 6d. out of the £120 required.

Now I believe there are many others who intend to contribute and I ask them if they will be so good as to do so this month, so that in the August magazine I may be able to announce that the whole sum is promised. Then we shall be able to put the work in hand and our peal of bells will be in good order for many years to come.

So will you please, during July, tell me or one of the churchwardens what you will give to help to get this good and necessary work done. If I close with the hackneyed phrase "Thanking you in anticipation," it is because I have never doubted that this undertaking has the good will of you all.

Your Faithful Friend and Servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

Children's Festival.—This will take place on Sunday, July 22nd. As in previous years, we shall not attempt more than three services. At 8-0, Holy Communion will be celebrated. At every festival this must needs be the chief service. Thanksgiving, fellowship (with God and man), intercession, all reach their highest point at the altar, and on this occasion they will all be focussed on child-life. So then let us start our children's festival having around us and with us all our young communicants and parents and teachers. At 11-0 the nave will be occupied by the children. Special hymns will be sung. The preacher will be the Ven. the Archdeacon of Loughborough. At 6-30 the service will begin with a procession of children from the Church Room. The special hymns will again be sung and the Vicar of Castle Donington (The Rev. J. S. G. Llewelyn) will be the preacher. The children are busy practising the hymns. Offerings will be for the Sunday Schools. We look forward to crowded congregations and to a happy day of worship which will help to lift the children and all Godwards.

Sunday Schools.—Miss Edna Towell has our very best wishes on the occasion of her marriage. She has been a devoted teacher in the Infants' School for many years. The teachers gave her an oxydised bowl for a wedding present.

We publish below our balance sheet for the year ending March 31st, 1934. We shall shortly be asking you once again for your annual subscriptions, which we hope you will be able to renew.

Open-air Service.—The Quorn Cricket Club have invited us to hold a service on the field one evening. We very gladly accept the invitation and propose to hold the service on Sunday, July 29th, at 7 p.m. We ask the congregation to assemble in the church at the usual hour of evensong—6-30—and then, after a very abbreviated form of worship, to follow the Cross and choir in procession to the cricket ground. A collection will be made for the Loughborough Hospital.

My dear Friends,

May I draw your attention to the arrangements for keeping our Patronal Festival, which are printed below? I hope that all the items will help in one way or another to cement our fellowship in the Church and to increase the efficiency of the service we owe to Jesus Christ and one another.

The statement concerning the Bell Fund will show that we have reached our goal. In these summer months the fund has been quickly built up, like the temple of old, without sound of hammer or axe (I. Kings vi. 7). We are more than grateful for this ready and spontaneous response from 220 people.

Your faithful friend and servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S, QUORN.—Continued.

Sunday School.—The children's festival was held on July 22nd and passed off very happily. The attendance at Holy Communion showed that the festival is considered as beginning then, though this is not to say that our hopes were realised. The singing of the children, after much careful practice, was very good. The large congregation at Evensong we think justified having no afternoon service. For their sermons we thank our preachers, the Archdeacon of Loughborough, and the Vicar of Castle Donington.

There will be no Sunday School on the Sundays in August, but there will be children's services on Sundays August 19th and 26th, and the children should be present at the 9-30 Choral Communion on the 12th.

Altar Flowers.—Sunday the 5th, Mrs. Beardsley; the 12th, Miss Hall; the 19th, Mrs. R. Facer; the 26th, Miss Bradley; September 2nd, Miss Martin.

We warmly congratulate Ernest Bancroft, one of our ringers and an old choir boy, on winning an open scholarship at Sheffield University.

We are much indebted to Mr. W. Branford, Vicar's warden, for a new free-will offering box for the church, which he has made and given.

Evensong at Southwell Minster will perhaps last as long in the memory of the mothers as any other item of the most enjoyable outing on June 26th.

A welcome was given to the mothers of Little Bytham on July 19th. After Evensong and tea some of them—by no means the youngest—played a very good game of bowls on the Vicarage lawn.

Our choir much enjoyed their part in the Choral Festival at St. Peter's, Loughborough, when they helped to offer, with 300 other voices, a very beautiful choral act of worship.

The interior of the Schools will be painted during the holidays. One seventh of the cost of this has to be met locally. The outside of the building is entirely our concern. It badly needs painting. The managers propose to organise a Whist Drive on Saturday, October 6th in the Village Hall, to help to meet the cost. Please note the date and object.

My dear friends,

I write in the middle of our Patronal Festival. We are remembering that here in our village is a building that was set apart for the worship of God eight centuries ago or thereabouts, and has therefore been hallowed by the prayers and praises of many generations. It stands for what is precious, sacred and abidingly true. It remains while other dwellings, to say nothing of customs and manners, have changed beyond recognition or fallen into decay, as a witness to God, who changeth not. Such reflections are valueless unless they bear fruit, unless we give thanks that we have a noble heritage and prayerfully resolve that we will use wisely those opportunities for fellowship with God and man which a hallowed building affords and lead others by our influence to do the same. To this end may this Bartholomewtide be blessed.

Your faithful friend and servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

We must accustom ourselves now for two months to hearing no church bells. Messrs. John Taylor will carry out the repairs according to their specifications during the months of September and October. Our ringers will enjoy a well-earned rest and will no doubt return to their labours at the end of it with renewed zeal. The up-to-date ball bearings, as well as the other improvements which they will then find, will we hope bring an added pleasure and efficiency to their ringing. In addition to the contributions already acknowledged we have to add the following: Mr. and Mrs. Felthouse, 5s.; Miss G. Felthouse, 2s. 6d.; Mrs. Clarke (the Lodge), 2s.

On a beautiful evening, following heavy rain at mid-day, the choir and congregation, after a brief service in Church, passed across the high road down to the cricket field. There at the pavilion front a service was held. Well known hymns were sung, an address was given by the Vicar on the words "Abide with us for the day is far spent," and a collection made for the Loughborough Hospital amounting to £3. The service was held at the invitation of the Cricket Club. The place adapted itself admirably to the purpose, and everyone voted the occasion a very happy one.

Again in the open-air, namely on Wake Sunday evening, at 6-0, we hope to gather for worship. There, no doubt, many will be assembled after the custom of the Wake, and the Barrow Band will kindly lead our hymns as heretofore. Come and help us to find God ever ready indeed to be found where crowds are gathered.

The G.F.S. will begin meeting again on Wednesday, September 19th. The session will open on that evening with a service in Church at 7-30. The Missionary Working Party will start activities on Tuesday, the 11th, and thenceforth on the second Tuesdays in the month.

Those who are looking forward to another series of debates being arranged should be on the qui vive for good subjects which it may be profitable to discuss.

The last Sunday in the month is fixed for our Harvest Thanksgiving. The Rev. T. R. J. Avery will preach at 11-0, and the Vicar, for a change, will stop at home in the evening. Once again the Festival will give us an opportunity to support the Hospitals at Loughborough and Leicester. The Children's Offering Service, at 2-30, will no doubt be, as usual, a great feature of the day.

We lose another Sunday School teacher by marriage, Miss Dorothy Penfold. Her fellow teachers gave her a barometer, hoping that in all weathers her married life would be happy.

An old choir boy, Claude Thornton, passed away in Leicester and was laid to rest by the Vicar in the beautiful Saffron-lane Cemetery on August 11th.

Altar Flowers.—Sunday, the 2nd; Miss Martin; Sunday, the 9th, Mrs. Ogden; Sunday, the 16th, Miss Burrows; Sunday, the 23rd, Mrs. Toller; Sunday, the 30th, Miss Bradley; Sunday, October 7th, Mrs. Wright.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S, QUORN.—Continued.

Loughborough Hospital Contributory Scheme.—The Quorn Committee are anxious that the scheme should be understood, especially as it affects those who are not contributors through their place of business. A contribution of 2d. a week paid by the head of a working-class family secures treatment at the hospital for all the non-working members of the family. The Quorn Committee meets on the first Wednesday of each month at the Mills Institute at 7.30, at which time Mr. J. J. Stirling, the Hon. Sec., or Mr. F. W. Bailey will be glad to enrol members and receive contributions which, however, may be paid weekly or periodically if so desired. The Governors of the Hospital wish it to be understood that only in exceptional cases (when vouchers may be obtainable from personal or corporate subscribers such as religious bodies) can treatment at the Hospital be received by non-contributors without payment of two guineas per week. To join the Contributory Scheme is therefore greatly to the advantage of all concerned.

My dear Friends,

You know that as an honorary canon I am thereby a member of the Leicester Cathedral Chapter. As such my duties are not heavy. Recently it was my privilege to preach in the Cathedral pulpit, and there are occasional meetings of the Chapter to attend. At the moment I should like to interest you, if I may, in the forthcoming Cathedral Bazaar, to which I have made mention below.

I daresay you will agree that under the leadership of the Provost the old parish church of S. Martin has been worthily equipped to be the Cathedral Church of the Diocese. This has called forth the Provost's great administrative ability and, of course, has entailed a great expenditure of money.

A little time back I was asked if, as one of the Canons, I would help to provide goods for the Chapter Stall at the bazaar and I promised to do so. The stall will be general in character and will be presided over by Lady Oliver. If some of you will help me to redeem my promise I shall be most grateful. You will probably know what kind of articles are saleable on a general stall (not eatables), and if you would be so good as to send me something of the kind to the Church Room on Friday, October 12th, any time in the day, I should be most grateful.

Your faithful friend and servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

The Harvest Festival is just over. The Church was decorated with exceptional beauty and care. Noteable features were the abundance and beauty of the flowers, the pumpkins and marrows, and the number of children's baskets addressed to special friends. The choir sang very creditably the difficult anthem "Praise," by Rowley.

On Sunday, October 7th, there will be retiring collections for the Wrexham Colliery Disaster Relief Fund.

Patronal Events.—The social events could not be recorded in our last number. They are worthy of some mention. Both parts of the Sunday School treat enjoyed fine weather.

Once again Quorn Court was kindly thrown open to us by Col. and Mrs. Toller, and both the gathering there on the Saturday afternoon and the drive on the following Monday were very happy affairs. The cricket match on Tuesday evening was all but washed out by rain, but not quite, the two teams facing a thick drizzle for one hour's play. It was too cold and damp to hold the concert next evening in the Vicarage garden, but a small company gathered in the Church Room for a real musical treat. A party of 48, including the choir boys, visited Whipsnade next day. The weather was beautiful. The monkeys played up to us splendidly, the tigress allowed her cubs to make a silly of her in our presence, the lions looked at us with sleepy indifference. This was an outing that left little to be desired. The choir boys thank their kind supporters.

The Church Room.—With our half share of the proceeds of the Rummage Sale which we ran in conjunction with the G.F.S. (£6), and with the valuable help of a special effort made by the Ladies' Afternoon Whist Drives, we have been able to give the order for the re-decoration of the interior of the Church Room. This is most satisfactory.

The first event of the winter programme will be of an exceptional character. It will be an experiment. We are arranging to have a semi-partner whist drive without prizes on Wednesday, October 17th, at 7-0. We feel the experiment is worth making and we hope it will be a success. Admission 1s. (including refreshments).

The Churchyard.—A good deal of levelling was done some months back, and but for the lack of rain some parts would now be well rolled and under the mowing machine. However, some of this may yet be done before the winter; one day a week will now be given to this, and special attention will be given to the immediate vicinity of the Church. A good many of the annual subscriptions to the Churchyard Improvement Fund have already been received. All Saints' Day, November

1st, is the day by which the Churchwardens will be glad to receive all of them. Here we beg to acknowledge, with thanks, one anonymous subscription of £1.

Two Diocesan Events.

(i) The annual Diocesan Festival will take place in the Cathedral on Saturday, October 27th, at 3-0 p.m. Every parish in the Diocese is invited to send four representatives from its Council and sidesmen. These will all be grouped in Deaneries with their Rural Deans and form a procession to the Cathedral. Our representatives have been selected. Others will, of course, be welcome.

(ii) A big Cathedral Bazaar will be held in the Edward Wood Hall, Leicester, on October 17th-20th. Its object is to raise the last £1,000 of the sum of about £25,000 which has been expended on equipping St. Martin's as the Cathedral Church of the Diocese. Friends of the Cathedral from all over the Diocese will be welcome.

Mothers' Union. — The Way of Renewal year is still with us, and personal renewal of life continues to be our aim and prayer. We have just had a beautiful service with a group of other Deaneries at S. Margaret's, Leicester, and on October 19th Mrs. George Rudd will speak to us in the Church Room.

G.F.S.—We reopened with a service in Church and now our fortnightly meetings are in full swing. We welcome Miss Long, who has kindly agreed to look after the candidates.

St. Luke's, Oct. 18th.—Offerings for Medical Missions are customary with us at St. Luke's tide. Envelopes for the purpose will be obtainable in Church on Sunday, Oct. 14th. Will you please take one then and bring it back and put it in the bag on the following Sunday.

Altar Flowers.—Oct. 7th, Mrs. Wright; Oct. 14th, Miss Hickling; Oct. 21st, Mr. and Mrs. J. Martin; Oct. 28th, Mrs. Oliver; Nov. 4th, Miss Hall.

Mission to Seamen.—Mrs. Backhouse has collected £4 in subscriptions this year.

Waifs' and Strays' Society.—Please note the Pageant and Fayre in Loughborough Town Hall on October 12th and 13th.

Sympathy.—Mrs. Penfold wishes to express her thanks for all the kindness shown to her and her family in their great loss.

Bells Fund.—We must add to previous acknowledgments the name of Mr. and Mrs. Camp, 2s. 6d.

My dear friends.

You have no doubt heard of the death of Edward Foord Kelvey, Priest and Vicar of this parish from 1882-1909. From here he went to be Rector of Kimble, Bucks., where he remained until his retirement in 1926. There I sought him out when I was asked to succeed him, and well remember his cordial welcome and his solicitude that whoever followed him would maintain the daily offices. He was a diligent parish priest and a many-sided man. The life and history of the village was very dear to him and many of you remember him with gratitude and affection. I was writing of him as being in active retirement at Oxford at the time of his passing, but that he certainly was until quite recently. On All Souls' Day we commemorated him at the altar and commended his spirit to God's keeping.

I have to thank many of you for sending articles and contributions to the Cathedra Bazaar. I should think there was about £10 worth, so I was able to feel that with your help I had done my bit for the Chapter Stall. Moreover, I hear the Bazaar has achieved its object.

I have often thought that October would be a grand month for a holiday so I slipped away to Bournemouth in the middle of this month and put it to the test, and proved the idea to be right. I stayed a few days with our old friends the Waltons and a week with my sister. My old warden has a car and is still ever ready for service. With his aid I have seen a good deal of the New Forest, all copper-hued at the moment, and have also visited Winchester, Hursley, Romsey, Salisbury, Stonehenge, Milton Abbas, Christ Church, Wimborne and Corfe, in all quite a feast of good things.

Of course, I was sorry to be away on St. Luke's Day, the 25th anniversary of my induction, but I was not actually very distant, and there is a little church in a spinney of pines where the Canford Cliffs slope down to sandbanks, and that was a great help.

Your faithful Friend and Servant,
H. H. RUMSEY.

St. Andrew's tide.—Friday, November 30th. This will once again be here and elsewhere observed as a day of Intercessions for Missions overseas. The supreme task entrusted to the Church by her Lord in the words "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature" still challenges our loyalty. The Holy Sacrifice will be pleaded at the altar at 6-30 and 10-0 with this special intention. Also an intercession service will be held at 6-0 p.m., when it is hoped that all King's Messengers as well as adults will be present. Will all Missionary Box holders please give an extra thought to their boxes during this month, and then bring them to one or other of the services on St. Andrew's Day so that our offerings as well as our prayers and supplications may be presented to God.

Armistice Day.—Falling on a Sunday this year the day should be most worthily and profitably observed. The placing of the book of remembrance on the altar will signify the grateful remembrance of sacrifice, and the resolve that it shall not have been in vain. That means that the day will be full of the hope and the prayers that the Great War shall yet be proved to have achieved its avowed object, which was to end war. Morning Prayer will begin at 10-50 so that we may be ready to give the very best of our thought and prayer and self-dedication to the moments of silence in which so many others will be doing the same. Also there will be retiring collections for Earl Haig's Fund.

Lay Convention at Swanwick, Oct. 13th-14th.—Two of us attended the Conference as representatives of the City in the parish. We heard inspiring addresses given by Canon Buchanan and the Archdeacon of Hastings on Saturday, and by Chancellor Macmorran, K.C., and Mr. Charles Young, of Portsmouth, on Sunday. With two hundred others we attended Holy Communion, celebrated by the Bishop of the Diocese and his Archdeacons. Later on Sunday we took part in Group discussions and findings, and we hope shortly to have an opportunity of passing on to the parish the message which we have carried back from Swanwick. It was a memorable week-end, and we experienced a very real feeling of fellowship.—G.R.H.

Diocesan Festival.—Our four lay representatives were present in the crowded Cathedral on October 27th. The Bishop of Sheffield preached on taking courage, concluding with the words "Hope is the flag which flies from the citadel of the heart when the King is in residence."

Acknowledgment.—We gratefully received and handed on £7 12s. 3d. for the Gresford Colliery Fund and £5 for Medical Missions on Sundays, October 7th and 21st (in addition to the ordinary collection); also many contributions in kind and money for the Cathedral Bazaar.

Church Room.—After its internal redecoration the Room looks very bright. The no-prize whist drive was a very happy event and brought out some players who are not usually to be seen. There were 11 tables. The experiment was worth making and there is no reason why it should not be repeated.

MISSIONARY WEEK-END, December 8—10.

Conducted by the Rev. A. J. ISON, Vicar of Hoton.

My dear Friends,

This, I think, is the most important thing for me to speak about this month. This Missionary Week-end was recommended by the Missionary Sub-Committee to the Church Council, who unanimously adopted the recommendation. The title, I think, explains itself. It is an effort to give the very best of our thoughts and prayers over a week-end to the missionary work which Jesus has committed to our trust. We are to do so with the help of a visiting clergyman. I have asked him to say a word or two below. The Sunday is the one on which we are accustomed to give our offerings to the Church Missionary Society. That will hold good. I trust this week-end will add to our usefulness as fellow-workers with God in the carrying out of His purpose for the world.

Your faithful friend and servant,

H. H. RUMSEY.

Saturday Evening, December 8th, at 6-30, in Church: Devotional Address to Communicants.

Sunday, December 9th: Holy Communion, 8-0 and 9-30 (Choral) with special intention.
Mattins and Sermon, 11-0. Evensong and Sermon, 6-30.

Monday, December 10th: Conference in the Church Room at 7-30.

The Rev. A. J. Ison will give the addresses throughout.

My dear Brethren,

I am coming to you at the invitation of your Vicar and the P.C.C., charged by our Bishop to deliver to you a message and an appeal of the supremest importance both to yourselves, as individuals, and as a Christian community, and also to the Church at large.

The Church of Christ throughout the world is face to face not only with a grave crisis, but also with a call and an opportunity unparalleled since the beginning of her history. If the purpose and intent of our God for this generation is to be realised, every single one of us must do his or her humble best.

I ask your help, brethren. Please determine to show, by your attendance throughout the week-end, whose side you are on. Please pray for me and for God's blessing on the services and meetings of the week-end.

That our Heavenly Father may bless you all is the sincere prayer of your fellow-worker in His Kingdom.

Hoton, Nov. 23rd, 1934.

A. J. ISON.

The Bells.—A lot of people have been saying, "It doesn't seem like Sunday without the bells." Now they are hung in their places again, and we are delighted to hear their joyful sound once more.

When the clock began to strike again we knew that the tenor bell, at least, was hung. That inspired hope. On Armistice Day it was evident that the work was complete. To hear them again on that day was a happy omen. Bells have many functions, sad and gay. They could never serve a better purpose than to ring in the reign of peace.

The ringers are back in their places. We welcome their return. The recent silence has shown us how much we depend on them. They play a most important part in calling us joyfully to worship. Indeed, if Sunday is not Sunday without them, their part in Church work is indispensable.

The Vicar met them lately to talk matters over. They are finding the ringing delightfully easier. The ringer of the tenor—the heaviest—says he must find some other way of getting warm. Schemes for developing the art of ringing were discussed. We decided to ask the Midland Counties Association to give us a peal one day before Christmas.
