MAGISTRATES' COURT—LOUGHBOROUGH TOWN HALL

Charles Freeman, of Loughborough, was charged by James Bombroffe, brickmaker, with absenting himself from his service without leave. The youth, it appeared, feeling anxious to gratify himself with a sight of the soldiers then in town and the procession of the Bell's Equestrian Circus, which was to take place that morning, had neglected to go to work, and his master being unusually busy was thereby put to great inconvenience.—Admonished and discharged on returning to service and paying costs.

Samuel Briggs, carrier from Quorndon, fined 2/6 and costs for leaving his ass and cart on the Leicester Turnpike Road for more than two hours without any one to mind it.
