

The Cradocks of Leicestershire

Generation One

1. John CRADOCK, of Richmond, Yorkshire, England,ⁱ d. 1753.ⁱⁱ According to The Landed Gentry 1894, p 415, Cradock of Quorn Court, this family came from Richmond, Yks and entered their pedigree at the Visition of York in 1685-6 (or 1665-6, illegible).

According to "The Genealogist, Vol 6, Page 19"

Cradock of Loughborough LEI

This family is apparently a branch of the family of Cradock of Richmond Yks of which pedigrees will be found in Plantagenet, Harrison's Yorkshire, Surtees Durham, Nichols Leicestershire etc. (See The Genealogists Guide pp118, 507)

William Cradock, who died in 1805 and John Cradock who died in 1833, both used bookplates of these Arms: Argent, on a chevron Azure, three garbs, Or. Crest: A bear's head proper muzzled Gules. Motto: Nee temere, nee timide.

How this branch was connected with the Richmond family is not certain.

John Cradock, of Richmond Yks, died in 1753. Letters of Admon. to his effects were granted by the CC Richmond, 7 May 1753 to Dorothy Cradock, his widow and relict. The Bondmen were his widow, John Cradock, of Richmond, gentleman, and William Cradock, of Lincoln's Inn, gentleman. By his wife Dorothy, he had two sons.

John 1723-4; William bp 1727.

The use of the forename Sheldon suggests that this is part of the family of William CRADOCK and Mary SHELDON.

Landed Gentry p 385. gives lineage

John Cradock, of Richmond, Co. York, ws the father of two sons, John and William. His elder son John Cradock of Richmond, b. 1724; d unm 1 Feb 1777 and was bur. at Loughborough, Co. Leicester. He was s. by his brother, William.

He married Dorothy, b. est 1700.

Children:

- i. John CRADOCK, b. 1724 in of Richmond, Yorkshire, England,ⁱⁱⁱ d. 1 Feb 1777,³ buried: in Loughborough, Leicestershire, England.³ Died unmarried. He was survived by his brother.

According to The Genealogist, Vol 6

John Cradock, of Richmond, gentleman, born 1723-4; died 1 Feb 1777, at Loughborough LEI age 53, buried at Loughborough. On an altar tomb in the churchyard he is called "John Cradock, late of Richmond, in the county of York." He was residuary devisee under the Will (proved at Richmond 6 Nov 1759) of his "cousin" Richard Fox of Brompton upon Swale, son of Christopher and Dorothy Fox.

2. ii. William CRADOCK b. abt 1727.

Generation Two

2. William CRADOCK, b. abt 1727, baptized 4 Jun 1727 in Richmond, Yorkshire, England,¹ d. 30 Nov 1805 in Loughborough, Leicestershire, England,^{3,2} buried: in Loughborough, Leicestershire, England.^{3,2} Landed Gentry p 385 names the father of William as John Cradock of Richmond Yks, and gives baptism as 4 Jun 1727, Richmond. Another hand written pedigree (source unknown, but appears to be a visitation record), names William Cradock and his wife Mary SHELDON as his parents.

The Genealogist, Vol 6.

William Cradock, (second son of John and Dorothy) was bp at Richmond 4 Jun 1727. He left Richmond early in life, and settled in Loughborough, where he pursued the profession of Attorney at law. In 1753 he is described as of Lincolns Inn, Middlesex, gentleman. He married at Loughborough, 2 Sep 1756, Elizabeth 2nd dau of John Davys of Loughborough, and aunt of the Rt Rev. George Davys, DD Lord Bishop of Peterborough descended from Edward Davuys elder brother to Sir John Davys, the poet and Attorney General for Ireland.

He had estates at Barrow upon Soar, Hathern, and Loughborough etc, in Co. Leicester and at Richmond. He died at Loughborough 30 Nov 1805 age 78; bur at Loughborough. Will proved PCC 11 Mar 1806. His widow, Elizabeth died 28 Jun 1821, age 79; bur at Loughborough. They had issue...

Interesting that one of their children was named Sheldon as this gives some indication that this line could be of the line of William Cradock and Mary Sheldon.

This is clearly incorrect - parents married 1765 and siblings born after this date.

Generation Five

8. Thomas CRADOCK, b. 6 Mar 1851 in Barrow on Soar, Leicestershire, England,^{10,xvii} d. 4th qtr 1912 in Cleobury M. RD, Shropshire.^{17,7} A pedigree for Cradock of Quorn Court in 'The Landed Gentry 1894' gives Thomas's birth date as 1847, and styles him as 'of Meon Hill, Stratford-upon-Avon'. However, the GRO birth index suggests that Thomas's birth was registered in 2nd qtr 1851 in Barrow on Soar - other children registered there are his siblings, and in his family in the 1851 census there is listed a male aged 1mth.

Thomas married Katherine Louisa Jane, dau of C. Holland CORBETT Esq of Admington Hall, Gloucester, (see pedigree of Corbett of Admington Hall).

A careful search of the birth, death & census indexes reveal some interesting movements -

1876/1 Kate Alice's birth registered Shipston, Warwickshire

1877/2 Cecile's birth registered Pembrokeshire

1878/1 Kate Alice's & Cecile deaths registered Pembrokeshire

1879/1 Evelyn Mary's birth registered Pembrokeshire

1881 census, family living at Meon Hall Farm, Quinton, Gloucestershire. Thomas was a farmer of 311 acres, with wife Katie in the census, and dau Evelyn.

1881/4 Corbett's birth registered Shipston, Warwickshire

Shipston is the nearest registration district to Quinton, and Admington Hall, which belonged to Katherine's father, appears to be within the parish of Quinton. A search of the 1881 census index reveals a Corbett H CORBETT (C Holland Corbett, Katherine's father above?), aged 50, living at Admington Hall. By the 1891 census, there are no Corbets or Cradocks in Admington or Quinton. Neither were Thomas and his family back at Quorndon, Lei. It is not known where the family went to from.

The Alumini Cantab. has this to say about Thomas - Adm. pens. at Trinity 9 Jul 1870. 2nd s of Thomas of Quorn court, Loughborough, Lei. b there 6 Mar 1851. School, Repton. Matric. Michs. 1870.
