PARISH NOTES.

The month opens with the great Festival of Whitsunday. It is one of those holy days that are more observed in these days because of the Bank Holiday attached to it. But Christian people should look forward to it for better reasons than that. It was ordained to commemorate the Birthday of the Church, when as related in Acts ii., the Holy Spirit came down upon the Apostles and so gave them power to begin their work—a work that has never ceased—which is continued now in full vigour. On Whitsunday we are led to consider the special work of the Holy Spirit. The collections in Church will be given to Foreign Missions, in which field the work of the Holy Spirit is often most plainly seen in the courage and perseverance of the workers.

Whitsunday is one of the great Festivals upon which all Christian people should receive the Holy Sacrament.

There will be three celebrations of the Holy Communion on Whitsunday, viz.:—at 7 a.m., 8 a.m. (Choral), and after Morning Prayer.

There will be no morning services on Whit-Monday, but on the Whit-Tuesday there will be the usual Holy-day services.

On Wednesday, May 29th, there will be a Preparation Service for the Whitsunday Communion.

On Whitsunday afternoon there will be a collection at the Children's Service for the Negro Boy Fund.

The Archbishop of Canterbury has issued a request that on Whitsunday special prayers may be offered for the Unity of Christendom, that is (as it says in one of our prayers) that "all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life." It should be a cause of sadness to every earnest-minded Christian heart that there are so many who, calling themselves Christians, yet do all they can to oppose and thwart other Christian people. At the present time there is a bill being promoted in Parliament by professing Christians to take away the property of the Church in Wales. It is very hard to think of, and hard to bear, and yet we must strive to suppress all bitter and harsh feelings, and pray that the hearts of those who oppose us may be turned. We cannot all learn to agree all at once, but if we were to live at peace side by side, without using any harsh or unkind designs against each other, we should be more likely to learn the truth, and come to agreement. As long as angry and party feelings are allowed to move us we are blinded to the truth, and unity is impossible.

On Sunday, June 16th, the Sermons, morning and evening, will be preached by the Rev. L. Clayton, Canon of Peterborough. The collections on this day will be given to the Diocesan Fund, which has been instituted to help different good works in the Diocese at large.

We said last month that we hoped to be able to make some definite statement about the Sale of Work which it was proposed to hold at Whitsuntide. It has been thought better to postpone it still later, and hold it on a sufficiently large scale so as to cover the expenses of restoring the Church Tower, as well as pay the special expenses incurred in freeing the seats in the Church. We ought to be able to raise £200 in this way if time is given to prepare. The time now fixed upon is the first or second week in October. There will be two stalls for plain useful work, two for fancy work, one for artistic and ornamental objects, one for flowers and fruit, besides a provision and refreshment department. This arrangement will give an opportunity for all kinds of offerings, and we hope that people will begin to think what they can contribute to the work. Things suitable for any of the Stalls will be gladly received by Mrs. Kelcey at the Vicar's House.
