

The Kelcey Walks

1908 - 2008

Travels through Quorn's past

NOW ON SALE

THE KELCEY WALKS 1908-2008

A new illustrated book of historical walks around the village of Quorn as it was seen in 1908. 72 pages packed full of fascinating tales and with over 80 village photographs.

- What was the mystery behind John Sarson's death in the River Soar in 1873?
- See photos and illustrations of long demolished Quorn mansions and learn how people both rich and poor lived at this time.
- Read about 'Machine Lane' and the toll road.
- Where was the 'Dark Hole'?

- Then and Now section - compare photographs of the village taken in the early 1900s with those of 2008

Price: £6.00.
All proceeds to aid village heritage projects.

Purchase from the Parish Office, High Street.